

NATURE . WILDLIFE

WILD MEDITERRANEAN

3 × 52' (ENG)

Explore the secretive world of the Mediterranean's wild animals.

From the dense forests and rugged mountain peaks to the vast stretches of wilderness, uncover the hidden lives of the region's most remarkable creatures. Each episode focuses on a key species—the elusive Iberian lynx, the clever Barbary macaque, and the resilient wolf—revealing their unique challenges and triumphs within their natural habitats. Alongside these fascinating creatures, the series offers a glimpse into the intricate connections that sustain the region's vibrant wildlife. It showcases a diverse array of other animals from soaring eagles and graceful flamingos to mysterious underwater creatures, all contributing to the rich tapestry of Mediterranean life.

Year: 2024

Produced by: Docu Producciones

1. The Iberian Lynx

In the dense forests of the Mediterranean, the elusive Iberian lynx rules as the king of the wilderness. A masterful and silent predator, this powerful feline can hunt prey up to three times its weight. Delve into the life of the Iberian lynx and uncover its incredible story of survival and adaptation in a complex ecosystem, where every creature contributes to the delicate balance of nature.

2. The Barbary Macaque

3. The Wolf