RURAL DESTINATIONS IN THE WORLD

13 x 30' (ENG, GER, SPA)

In a world where the fast paced life of metropolitan cities have infiltrated every aspect of daily life, everyone is searching for that one place where one can let one's hair down.

These hidden gems do exist and it will be our honour to escort you there. Rural Destinations in the World is a thirteen-episode documentary series that shows great vacation spots in Spain, Israel, Germany, Morocco, Colombia, Germany or Japan. It takes you on a trip around the regions of the world that are almost untouched by modernization. Until recently, tourism meant a search for exotic destinations, idyllic beaches or endless tours across populous cities; in short, it was what we call "mass tourism". Nowadays, the average tourist looks for destinations that differ greatly from the frenzy of today's lifestyles.
