THE FARMER AND I

80' (ENG subs, GER subs)

"The Farmer and I" is a deeply personal film about the shared vision of two people from totally different backgrounds.

The German filmmaker, Irja and the Bhutanese farmer Sangay's hope is to one day produce a TV-series, which will convince citizens of Bhutan to consider a life in agriculture. This film embarks on a challenging journey full of unexpected obstacles and hidden treasures and centers around two people's willingness to fight, tarry and struggle just to incite change.
