AMAZING IRAN – A TURKMEN WEDDING

52' (ENG, GER), 45' (GER, FRE)

For the Iranian Turkmen a wedding is one of most important social events in their culture and is still celebrated according to old nomadic tradition.

The Turkmen Steppe, the country of a thousand mountains, is a tribute to the hidden treasure that is Iran. Home to a proud nation with a majestic history, we show the freedom of a nomadic life, encounter the wild nature of the people and discover old traditions like the Turkmen wedding. Breathtaking sceneries create a mysticism that transports viewers into the realm of divinity while exposing a world caught between tradition and modernity - nomadism and sedentarism.
